

Target attendees

This table summarises the target attendees that were included in our pilots but this is not an exhaustive list.

Sector	Detail	Fit across all wellbeing sectors
Healthcare	Hospital clinicians, healthcare innovation staff, psychologists, health charities, public health students, occupational therapists, physiotherapists	Local government/municipality employees, researchers, social cooperative project coordinators, administrative staff, volunteers, canteen staff, laundry staff, storage staff, cleaning staff, designers and design students.
Social care	Social workers, housing charities, arts and health charities, social planners, cultural planners, territorial planning services, social educators, residence care services, sociologists.
Sport	Sport scientists and physical activity promoters
Education	book/education charities, education planning services, educators (schools, colleges, Universities), teacher trainers, teachers (including primary school, preparatory school, kindergarten)
Youth	Schools and young people sectors, residence care

Co-Creating Wellbeing is an Erasmus+ project to develop the skills to apply and evaluate co-creation in real-world practice for people working in health, education, welfare, sport, youth and social services. For more information visit <https://cocreatingwellbeing.eu/>

Co-funded by the European Union

Funded by the European Union. Views and opinions expressed are however those of the author(s) only and do not necessarily reflect those of the European Union or the National Agency. Neither the European Union nor National Agency can be held responsible for them.

